MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR

A consistently strong newsstand performer, Country's Best Cabins highlights the realistic attainability of log-home ownership through attractive, yet accessible, log-home designs and provides prospective log-home owners with the tools they need to achieve their dream home. Although financially capable of hiring contractors for such tasks, these readers often prefer to take a hands-on approach to homeownership, from mapping out a general design to tackling many of the home's interior finishing details. To do so, they want to know the best products, practices and resources to use to complete their tasks, which they can find in both the editorial features and advertisements in Country's Best Cabins.

Sincerely,
