AUDIENCE

The most-requested back issues of our magazine family, Early Homes has an enthusiastic following of homeowners who remain true to the Early American aesthetic. This unique publication serves an avid niche of designers, homeowners, and artisans whose passion is colonial and classic homes (1690 to ca.1850) and their revival in the 20th century. Products and services that celebrate the simple elegance—and often-rustic nature—of this period are a great match for the Early Homes audience.
